1. The troops of Ukudui (WU Ku-t'ing) were originally under the command of SUN Lan-feng (孫蘭峯) and controlled by TUNG Ch'i-wu (董其武). Recently, Army Commander AN Ch'un-shan (安春山) was sent by FU Tso-yi to Suiyuan to try to win these troops over to the Communists. JUNG Hsiang (榮祥) was in accord with this plan, as was, in all probability, PAI Hai-feng (白海風), who is very close to JUNG.
2. In order to be able to continue their resistance to the Communists, Ukudui's troops moved westward, and in June 1949 were in the area near Yenchiang hsien [redacted] north of Shanpa [redacted]. Recent visitors to that area have reported that the troops are very enthusiastic at the prospect of autonomy being granted them, but that they do not have enough clothing to wear and are in urgent need of relief.
